Three-time Emmy award-winner Ernie Johnson is in his 22nd year as the studio host for Turner's NBA telecasts. He hosts TNT's Emmy award-winning Inside the NBA studio show with analysts Charles Barkley, Shaquille O'Neal and Kenny Smith.

Ernie Johnson Jr. is at the top of his game as a sportscaster for Turner Sports and CBS Sports—the lead TV voice for Major League Baseball (TBS), the host of Inside the NBA (TNT), and a contributor to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament (Turner and CBS).

He is also a faithful Christian and a father who has adopted children, one of whom has special needs.

"It's rooted in our faith, our Christian faith," he told the Courier-Journal in 2014. "We're instructed to care for orphans and widows. We don't want credit. We don't want pats on the back. We're getting a heck of a lot more out of it than they are."

Emmy Awards as outstanding daily studio show.

In 2007, Athletes in Action gave Johnson its first "John Wooden Keys to Life Award," which is presented to individuals who exemplify Wooden's "Seven Keys to Life," including character, integrity and faith.

In this heartfelt, gripping autobiography, Johnson provides a remarkably candid look at his life both on and off the screen. From his relationship with his sportscaster father to his own rise to the top of sports broadcasting, from battling cancer to raising six children with his wife, Cheryl, including a special needs child adopted from Romania, Ernie has taken the important lessons he learned from his father and passed them on to his own children.

This is the untold story, the one Ernie has lived after the lights are turned off and the cameras stop rolling. Sports fans, cancer survivors, fathers and sons, adoptive parents, those whose lives have been touched by a person with special needs, anyone who loves stories about handling life's surprises with grace--Unscripted is for all of these.
