Representing South Carolina's 4th District, Trey Gowdy entered Congress with a resolute commitment to the conservative principles that have guided him throughout his years in public service. At the core of those principles lies a firm belief in a limited government that inspires trust and demands accountability.

In June of 2017, Representative Gowdy became Chairman of the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee. He also served on the House Committees on Intelligence, Ethics, and Judiciary. In these capacities, Representative Gowdy has fought to highlight facts, uphold the Constitution, rein in the ever-expanding scope of the federal government, and restore America's trust with a renewed spirit of honesty, fairness and reason.

For 6 years as a federal prosecutor, Trey prosecuted the full range of federal crimes including narcotics trafficking rings, bank robberies, child pornography cases, and the murder of a federal witness. He was awarded the Postal Inspector's Award for the successful prosecution of J. Mark Allen, one of "America's Most Wanted" suspects. He also received the highest performance rating a federal prosecutor can receive - two years in a row.

Trey is married to Terri Dillard Gowdy, and they have two children: Watson and Abigail. The Gowdy family also includes two dogs: "Jury" and "Bailiff."

Rainbow Omega, Inc., is a faith-based residential and vocational program for adults with developmental disabilities located in Eastaboga, Alabama. In 1995 two group homes were opened, serving 16 individuals.

Today, the dream continues...the residential program now serves 82 adults in seven group homes and two intermediate care facilities.

The vocational program consists of a large work center where meaningful work is provided to our residents through contracts with companies, such as Honda of Alabama, Neptune Technology Group and through a greenhouse operation of nine greenhouses that grows various plants year round that are sold out of our newly opened Rainbow Garden Center.
